"I predict that this will be the definitive book on the topic of point shooting and handgun performance under stress, as well as handgun training in the point shooting school, for the foreseeable future."

—Lt. Col. Dave Grossman, author of On Killing, and On Combat

May 1, 2006 -- Saber Press is about to release the first book in a new line of firearms training manuals designed specifically to meet the unique needs of the civilian law enforcement and security industries.

POLICE PISTOLCRAFT explains in great detail "The Reality-Based, New Paradigm of Police Firearms Training".

The successful New Paradigm program has been designed to help ensure that our police officers are as well prepared as possible—mentally, physically, and emotionally—to employ their duty pistols safely, efficiently, and effectively when the need arises.

This 360-page, heavily-illustrated and professionally formatted textbook is like no other on the market.

Unlike most books about firearms training and use directed toward, or used by, the police industry, POLICE PISTOLCRAFT is not simply another take on target shooting techniques wrapped in a tactical wrapper.

POLICE PISTOLCRAFT has come about as a result of years of intensive research, study, and actual police operational experience. These have been combined with an unprecedented integration of proven training and psychological conditioning methodologies and adult learning concepts. The end-product is a police firearms training program that produces mission-specific results and provides for eye-opening experiential learning for all involved.

Demand for information about the New Paradigm program began after it was profiled in articles in Guns & Ammo and other magazines and in a series of training videos produced by the Law Enforcement Training Network (LETN). The book has been in production for several years and is finally ready to be released.

Written by veteran police officer Mike Conti, an internationally-recognized, award-winning police firearms instructor and author, POLICE PISTOLCRAFT will change for the better the way the members of US Law Enforcement train with their duty pistols.
